DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTION IN RELATION TO THE ENTERING OF THE FOURTH SUPPLEMENTAL SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

THE ENTERING OF THE FOURTH SUPPLEMENTAL SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

On 12 October 2021 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Company entered into the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement with the Issuer, pursuant to which, the maturity date of the Bond is further extended to 19 January 2022, with effect from 20 September 2021, and the Bond will bear an interest rate of 9% per annum during the Fourth Extended Period.

IMPLICATIONS UNDER THE LISTING RULES

As one of the relevant applicable percentage ratios (as defined under the Listing Rules) in respect of the entering of the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement is more than 5% but less than 25%, the entering of the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement constitutes a disclosable transaction of the Company and is therefore subject to the reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

BACKGROUND

Reference is made to the announcements of the Company respectively dated 18 March 2020, 18 March 2021 and 18 June 2021, in relation to the Company's entering of the First Supplemental Subscription Agreement, the Second Supplemental Subscription Agreement and the Third Supplemental Subscription Agreement with the Issuer for the Bond respectively.

On 20 March 2019 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Company (as the subscriber) entered into the Subscription Agreement with the Issuer (as the issuer), pursuant to which, the Issuer agreed to issue and the Company agreed to subscribe for the Bond in the aggregate principal amount of HK$15,000,000 bearing interest at a rate of 12% per annum (the “Interest Rate”) for a term of one (1) year.

On 18 March 2020 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Parties entered into the First Supplemental Subscription Agreement to extend the maturity date of the Bond for one (1) year to 19 March 2021 (the “First Extended Period”). Pursuant to the First Supplemental Subscription Agreement, the Second Bond Certificate had replaced the Original Bond Certificate. On 18 March 2021 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Parties further entered into the Second Supplemental Subscription Agreement to extend the maturity date of the Bond for three (3) months to 19 June 2021 (the “Second Extended Period”). Pursuant to the Second Supplemental Subscription Agreement, the Third Bond Certificate had replaced the Second Bond Certificate. During the First Extended Period and the Second Extended Period, the Interest Rate remained unchanged, and the Bond bore an interest rate of 12% per annum.

On 18 June 2021 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Parties further entered into the Third Supplemental Subscription Agreement to extend the maturity date of the Bond for three (3) months to 19 September 2021 (the “Third Extended Period”) and issued the Fourth Bond Certificate in replacement of the Third Bond Certificate. During the Third Extended Period, the Interest Rate was adjusted, and the Bond bore an interest rate of 9% per annum. Despite the failure for the Issuer to pay the principal and the interest due and payable on the Bond on or before 19 September 2021, the Issuer has subsequently repaid the interest accrued thereupon up to 12 October 2021 in full.

On 12 October 2021 (after trading hours of the Stock Exchange), the Parties further entered into the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement to extend the maturity date of the Bond for four (4) months to 19 January 2022 (the “Fourth Extended Period”) with effect from 20 September 2021, and issued the Fifth Bond Certificate in replacement of the Fourth Bond Certificate. During the Fourth Extended Period, the Bond will continue to bear an interest rate of 9% per annum. Save and except for the aforesaid extension of the maturity date, all other terms and conditions under the Subscription Agreement (and further amended by the First Supplemental Subscription Agreement, the Second Supplemental Subscription Agreement and the Third Supplemental Subscription Agreement) remain unchanged.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF ENTERING INTO THE FOURTH SUPPLEMENTAL SUBSCRIPTION AGREEMENT

In light of the gradual recovery of the global economic environment caused by the outbreak of coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19), the Group continues to adopt a cautious approach towards any potential investments. As at the date of this announcement, the Group has not identified any immediate and potential investment opportunity suitable for the Group's long-term business strategies.

Taking into account (i) the coupon rate of the Bond being 9%, which is substantially higher than the average bank deposit interest rate as quoted from the websites of well-recognised financial institutions in Hong Kong; (ii) the additional cash inflow and the stronger liquidity to be generated in the short term as a result of the Extension; (iii) the Issuer's most updated financial position; and (iv) the fact that the Extension will not have any material adverse impact on the business operations of the Group, the Board considers that the Extension would enable the Group to continue to enhance the efficiency in the use of the Group's capital and generate additional interest income to the Group.

As such, the Board (including independent non-executive Directors) considers that the Extension, terms under the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement and the transactions contemplated under the Fourth Supplemental Subscription Agreement are on normal commercial terms, fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.
